Tarkington's Young Rascals Now On Air

Big Business has its hectic moments and pictured below is one in the life of the North End Daily Oriole as COUSIN BILL RICKETTS, MAUD RICKETTS and HENRY ROOTER have a difference of opinion as the "deadline" nears. This amusingly frank juvenile newspaper and its staff are the creation of Booth Tarkington, dean of American literature and loved by all children for his "brain children" Fenrod, Sam and other lovable young rascals of his pen. Sponsored by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company their youthful antics may be heard over KJL, Columbia-Don Lee Broadcasting System every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights from 5:45 to 6 p. m.

And here is BOOTH TARKINGTON himself, above, who proves in this amusing radio skit the same versatility evidenced in his immortal stories which have won him highest of literary awards, including the Pulitzer Prize.

Man Who Knew Lincoln Will Speak Sunday

Personal Recollections of Washington Days Told at M. E. Church

Next Sunday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, a service of unusual interest and value will be held at the Methodist church, Rev. Francis D. Blakeslee, a man who saw Abraham Lincoln on numerous occasions, will give his lecture on Lincoln.
Dr. Blakeslee was a clerk in the quartermaster's department at Washington for a year and a half including the closing days of the Civil war. He remembers incidents and personal contacts with Lincoln during those interesting days. A well-kept diary of those days recalls many interesting events which Dr. Blakeslee relates in his address.
Historians never agreed as to just where President and Mrs. Lincoln drove on their last ride the afternoon preceding the assassination.
Dr. Blakeslee states, "Several histories have been changed since I produced my diary in which I tell of saluting the president and his wife at the Navy yard where I had gone the afternoon preceding his death. The President and Mrs. Lincoln drove up to the end of the platform where I saluted them and my salute was returned. This was the last time I saw the president alive."

Seek to Withdraw From Fire District

Hearing on the petition of property owners for withdrawal of territory from the Lomita county fire protection district has been set for March 13 by action of the board of supervisors.
The area now is annexed to the city of Torrance, and should rightfully be eliminated from the district, as Torrance now provides fire protection, it is contended. Petition carrying the names of numerous property owners was filed some weeks ago. The hearing, which will be on a Monday, has been set for 10 a. m. in the meeting room of the supervisors on the fifth floor of the Hall of Records.

NUMBER OF HOURS WHEN LIGHT IS NEEDED IN THE HOME

You Can Afford To Use More Lamps From Now On

You'll use 16% less light in February than you did in January. Not so much because February is a shorter month but because the sun rises earlier and sets later. Where your lighting time averaged 6.53 hours per day in January, it will run only 5.83 hours in February.

So you can afford to use more light from now on. Anything that improves illumination in your home is worth while. You can have better illumination now and still keep lighting the lowest item in the family budget. Why not consult one of our lighting engineers?
